

INDIA/MONTREAL EXCHANGE RESIDENCY

CALL FOR PROJECTS for a Residency at Darling Foundry, Quebec (Canada)
from August to October 2012

Deadline for Applications: February 20, 2012

The Darling Foundry Visual Arts Centre, the CREATIVE INDIA FOUNDATION, the INLAKS SHIVDASANI FOUNDATION and What About Art? are starting an Artist in Residence program for Indian Artists in Montreal.

The program offers an exchange residency at the Darling Foundry for professional visual artists, Indian citizens residing in India. One artist will be awarded a three-month residency and will receive a grant that contributes toward living expenses, travel fees and production costs.

The Darling Foundry aims to be an alternative, professional complex devoted to visual artists and their supporters. With an outstanding architectural design, The Darling Foundry, located in an old industrial neighborhood of Montreal, offers various opportunities for research, creation, production, and exhibition. Its multifaceted spaces include room for private studios, residencies, workshops, art galleries, a restaurant and offices over a 3500 m² surface.

A studio plus a separate living accommodation as well as common areas are provided. Artists have access to wood and metal workshops, with technical assistance if need be. In addition, each artist is given the option to participate in open studio events, studio visits by art professionals, networking events, and excursions.

The residency includes:

- Airfare (max CAN$ 2,000)
- A live-in studio for three months from August to October 2012
- A stipend of CAN$ 250 per week
- A production grant of CAN$ 1,000

Applicants interested in the residency program may submit a complete application form including support materials to the address below. We will not accept applications postmarked after the deadline date, incomplete, or submitted by fax or email.
